'SHRADDHA' extends financial support to weaver's widow

PBD BUREAU

BHUBANESWAR, JUL S

TOUCHED by a news item that appeared in a leading ver-nacular daily describing the distress of a woman after the untimely demise of her hus-band, Gvil society organisation 'SHRADDHA' extended a belping hand to the lady by supporting her with financial assistance to the tune of Re 20,001.

20,001. Moved by the news that handloom weaver Harihar Meher of Hanuman Palli under Birmaharajpur Block of Subarnapur district passed away at an early age of 42 years, leaving his wife Santi Meher and five children in dire condition, members of 'SHRADDHA' decided to help

SHRADDHA decided to help the distressed lady.

With its commitment to make small but meaningful contributions to the secto-economic causes of the handloom weavers like the "Squirred of the Ramayana", an appeal was made to the members of SHRADDHA for donating generously to support Santi Meher.

Efforts were made to col-lect the address and bank details of Santi Meher for help-ing her with financial assistance. With contributions from 'SHRADDHA' members including Satya Gopal Raiguru and Bijan Behari Paul, Pratima Ray from Delhi, Subhendra Mishra from the USA, Padmanava Panda and Sanjay Kumar Panda, the organisation deposited a cheque amounting to Rs 20,001 Santi Meher's bank account with State Bank of India, Birmaharaipur Branch on July 3, 2023.

"It is in fact a big gesture.
My compliments for the same," said a former senior bureaucrat of Odisha Arabinda Behera.

Odisha-based civil society organization 'SHRADDIA' set up by a group of likeminded people and led by former Union Textle Secretary Sarjay Kumar Panda keeps working with the mission to empower the handloom weavers, handicraft artisans with appropriate technology so as to help them increase income and scope of the market for their products eliminating middlemen in the trade. SRADDIA also endeavors to ensure these traditional forms to servive by motivating Odisha the next generation not to look the other way. This profession it society will be financially rewarding DHA' set for a member to earn enough teminded for living a life with dignity at par with others in the society, said Panda while speaking to said Panda while speaking to PBD.

SHRADDHA draws inspiration from the episode of the Ramayana relating to the contribution of the firm squirrel in making of the 'Rama Sethu' (bridge) across the sea. It is committed to make humble efforts for a meaningful impact in promotion of the craft sector, Panda said.
